Lord Constantin Breathnach (Chronicler)	John Darling
Lady Jane Caldwell (Exchequer)	April Rumboldt
TH Lady Constance of Constance (Chatelaine)	Heather Hanna
Lord Dafydd ap Alan (Minister of Arts & Sciences)	David Gotlieb
TH Lady Avelyn Wexcombe of Great Bedwyn (Webminister)	Melanie Reasheck

Business:

1. Commemorative Booklet @ SCA 50 year: no return for investment - voted down
2. Populace Badges: Suggestions for how Populace badges can be voted on discussed. Council will narrow it down to a small number of choices to go to populace (4 or 5), and will ask for a Yes/ No vote on each. Blazon to be adjacent to the picture.
The straight band with horizontal zigzag (red and white) chosen for its simplicity, visibility and ease of reproduction.
3. Ensured Green Mantle Herald had received the mail we sent her.
4. Event bids:
Received:
Baronial Muster (bid & budget) – limited attendance at the event forecasted. Not approved for Barony funding. Suggest efforts go into “Dandelion” event in Tor Brant instead. Can this be made more open and accessible?
Requested:
Border Spat: ask for bids - autumn suggested as likely time, bidders need to check against other events.
Spring coronation 2017: Please have Spring Coronation bids in hands of Baron and Baroness by May 2016.
12th Night 2017: Looking for bids from the Cantons. Opportunity for an upcoming autocrat. Will ensure the bid request is put on the website as well.
5. Summer Siege: The council discussed the idea of having midlevel QPT A&S judging in a pavillion at next Summer Siege. The Baronial Council supports this idea. Ways to use a pavilion discussed.
6. Chronicle to come out end of March. Articles to be submitted by BC members. Will have articles on opportunities & obligations for upcoming events.
7. Melanie needs to step down as Webminister and needs replacement. She will send email letting populace know this. We also need a new way to contract for domain service. Can we buy the website name back?

Meeting adjourned.
